

Job: Teacher Cuban Salsa

Send us your CV and motivational letter to:

Contact@salsategusta.nl

Teacher at Salsa te Gusta? Si!

Salsa te Gusta has grown to be a vibrant community where salsa dancing is central. This way we connect a young crowd in Amsterdam to enjoy life together! We are currently looking for experienced teachers to further develop the quality of our course program.

What StG offers you

- Inspiring locations and flexible working schedule
- Teaching appointed course groups for periods of 7 weeks.
- Work in a dynamic business where the core values are joy, passion and enthusiasm.
- Teamwork based on authenticity, trust and collaboration.
- Team is supportive of each other's personal and professional growth.
- Being part of an amazing vibrant community.
- Option to participate in our events and shows.
- Hourly pay-out, based on predetermined capacities (freelance or payroll)

What are we looking for?

- You have a strong personal passion for dancing.
- You have the ambition to share this passion by teaching.
- You are full of energy and feel responsible for hosting a great atmosphere in class.
- You have a flexible availability for weekly evening classes.
- You know how to approach and feel comfortable with big groups.
- You love to work in a team.
- You have a natural way of interacting with different types of people.
- You are between 20-35 years old.

Skills

- 5+ years of experience with Cuban Salsa Dancing.
- 2+ years of experience in teaching.
- Weekly availability of 3 hours minimum.
- Strong social and communication skills (as a team and in groups).
- Able and active in giving constructive feedback to students and co-teachers.
- Independence and enthusiastic.
- Able to teach different course levels.
- Fluent in the English or Dutch.
- Affinity with the mission of StG.

Pluspoints

- Experience with; Rumba, Afro, Kizomba, Bachata.
- University education in Performing Arts/Dance/Music.
- Spanish language.

